Local and Personal

Local notices this week. Mr. Whiddon for fresh beef. For another wedding; who is it? Answer still waves; send in you soon. You seen Dekle's assortment of books? W. Williams and wife left Thursday to attend district meeting at Chipley. The Campbell, of Vernon, came up on business. Vernon county secured three of the Corn Fair. SAVED—20,000 shingles; apply for them at this office. All of those who attended the fair have returned. Malzie Robinson made a business trip to Vernon Saturday. It not look well to clear off the some of the streets? The list of prizes awarded at the fair, in another column. Mr. John Barr Glen, Jr., of Wausau, is Maj. Butler this week. Mr. Allen made a business trip to Vernon Saturday, returning Monday. Do you want some job printing done on your order to the BANNER. Rossell Gay made one of those pleasant trips to the Bay this week. Who will bring us some shingles on subscription, or advertising account? Acquire D. J. Jones spent Monday at Vernon, attending to legal matters. Mr. Fred Hawk is teaching a flourish school three miles south-east of town. Emma, Greenville and Geneva, Ala. each received bales of new cotton. D. D. Davis left Thursday for a fishing on Econfina and Bear crkks. There is something grand in the near future for Chipley; MARK WHAT WE TELL. Something is going to be done in Washington county that will astonish the nation. T. E. Langston was reported quite well Wednesday; we hope he may soon recover. O. Butler, Mr. Fuller, and ye humbly servant visited Vernon Monday and Tuesday. Did you know that old Washington county was, by enterprise, coming to front? To regret to learn of the illness of Mrs. Cawthon, but hope to soon hear of recovery. He says come and get your goods, he no room to put them; your own private, for CASH. A. J. Gay and Mr. Fuller left last Friday for a trip east; listen for something to "drap." J. F. Barfield left Thursday for a business trip through Jackson county, to visit relatives. Malzie Robinson informs us that she has about fifty pupils at her school three miles north of town. I would like a short article from every post office in the county, every week, just a postal card of short items. The Campbell of DeFuniak, passed through here Tuesday enroute to Vernon where he went in an important law case. When you want fresh beef call on C. W. Whiddon; he now has charge of the City Market and is prepared to accommodate you at all times. Mr. Oscar Butler came in Sunday evening and is visiting his father and mother, and Mrs. W. O. Butler, here this week. Geo. Watts can now be found behind the counters at White & Williams', where he will be pleased to meet his many friends. G. W. Cook now has his saw mill going, and is cutting some very nice lumber. One enterprise follows another; what's next? Mr. S. W. Clark, of Calhoun county, came for that county at the Corn Fair, and stayed here a few days as he was running home. Rev. J. B. Foster filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church last Sunday morning and evening; preaching grand sermons. Look out for our next serial story; it will be well worth the price of the BANNER for one year. Send in your subscription, only $1 per year. W. Whiddon now has charge of the Central Hotel; when you visit Chipley, get a good square meal, or a good drink, call on him. Croakers will croak, blowers will blow, there is a tide in the affairs of men that will lead to a company, if followed the right time; look—

Hear ye! Hear ye! When you get something new and attractive, let the people know it through the columns of the BANNER; it will pay you. Mrs. Eliza Gay, grand mother of Capt. A. J. Gay, and great grand mother of Mr. Roswell Gay, is now visiting here. She is the great-grand mother of six. The following is J. L. Vickers' poetry for E. N. Dekle: All hail to those who wish to know, Dekle's goods are selling low. Mrs. A. J. Gay, Mrs. M. G. Castellaw and Mr. B. F. Castellaw, left Thursday for Georgetown, Ga.; Mrs. Gay to visit her daughter, the others returning to their home after a visit to our Bay country. We had the pleasure of meeting Prof. A. M. Golden, Wednesday; the Prof. is a thorough musician and expects to get a good class here. He teaches a series of ten lessons and guarantees satisfaction. Last Monday was the last day of grace that will be allowed on negotiable instruments in Florida, in accordance with provisions of a bill passed by the last legislature. Hereafter notes will become due on the date specified. Mr. Wiseloge, father of Mr. L. Wiseloge, of this place, left Thursday evening for his home at St. Louis, Mo. He left our sunny clime reluctantly, being called home by sickness in his family. He promises to return again. We certainly feel grateful to our friends for compliments passed on the way we went out the delinquent tax list. We have the praise of the County Commissioners, county officers, and the public at large. Thanks friends for all kind words. The bicycle ordinance passed by the city council some time ago, prohibiting riding on side walks in certain localities, works well. Now let them extend it so as to prohibit riding on any side walk in town. We hear complaints often from other portions of town where children have narrowly escaped injury from careless riders. It should be prohibited on all side walks of the town before a serious accident occurs. Capt. A. J. Gay tells us of a cheap horse and buggy he got this week. He hired a team to a strange party, who stated that he wanted it for ten or fifteen days; but through precaution he told the party that he must hear from him, at least every three or four days, as he could reach a post office in that time, anywhere. He left going to Graceville, first; there he left the horse and buggy, got on some party's wagon and left. After paying out $2.50 Mr. Gay got his team home again. It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist, of Onek, Mo.; and as he has used the Remedy in his own family, and sold it at his drug store for six years, he should certainly know. For sale by R. B. Bellamy and J. R. Farrior. Supt. Lockey's Zeal. County School Superintendent Lockey is to be commended for his untiring zeal in the school cause. He has at last prevailed on the school board to consent to an eight months school at four places in the county, that is, the Board will run the schools seven months and the patrons supplement the other month. By this arrangement the High School at this place will have full eight months. Now the patrons of this school should get to work, all pull together, and build up one of the best schools we have ever had here. Get off a circular letter showing our advantages and put forth an effort to build the school up to a high standard. Ladies' Home Journal. The Ladies' Home Journal for August, is charming, from the maiden on its cover bearing the golden rod of August, to its very last page. It is a mid-summer fiction number, and so overflows with well written stories that some of the customary departments have had to be crowded out or laid over to the September number. The number opens with one of Gibson's extremely clever Dickens sketches. Mr. Pickwick, delivering his famous speech, appears, drawn exactly as his friends and admirers have imagined his genial presence. Mr. Bok's editorial page, always good, is this month particularly so, and should be read by every young girl in the land. Ten cents per copy, by Curtis Pub. Co., Philadelphia, Pa. Sad Occurrence. On last Friday afternoon our quiet little town was shocked by the news that Mr. E. W. Stephens was dead. He had been in good health, so far as every one knew, and had been to Pensacola to attend the Corn Fair, came home well, but next thing known—he was dead. He died at 2 o'clock in the afternoon; and to add to the surprise, some said he had committed suicide while others said he had been the victim of poison; no one, we suppose, knows the correct solution of his death. The next news from his homestead was about 7 o'clock, same afternoon, when the report went forth that his wife, too, had passed over the dark river and joined her husband, in death. Mr. Stephens came here several years ago, and has been farming and working as a jeweler, all the while. He lived here in town for a while, then moved out about two miles, where he had made a home, and there followed his jeweler's trade as well as cultivating his little farm. There is many rumors current, as to the direct cause of their death, but was, for one, cannot say what was the cause, but one thing certain, is: E. W. Stephens and wife was buried in one grave at the same time. Their relatives have been notified and will arrive soon to take charge of and make some disposition of their effects.

Mr. Ed Minchen visited relatives at Campbellton Monday. Say, have you heard any railroad rumblings in the last few days. Mr. Markham is finishing up Esquire Jones' office this week, in good style. WANTED:—To buy a good old plug of a horse and good buggy. Apply here. Mrs. E. C. Daniel attended the Baptist meeting at Campbellton this week. Chew Reynolds Schanpps. No cheap tobacco as good. No good tobacco as cheap. For sale by White & Williams. 7-2m Mrs. S. C. Daniel and daughter visited relatives and friends at Campbellton this week. Several parties from a distance were here this week, but we could not get their names. If you don't believe McCallough examined your shoes while you do your shopping, try him. Mr. J. J. Williams says he thinks some one is going to visit him, as his nose itches very bad. A very interesting meeting is being conducted at Campbellton by Rev. Mr. Rodgers, this week. Esquire Carmichael went to Graceville Thursday to argue a very important legal case there. If you don't think we have legal talent here, just get up a "racket" and call for help in that line. Mr. Will Farrior's house is nearing completion; he will have a nice residence when completed. Hotels and boarding houses have done good business all this summer. This speaks well for our town. We have scholarship at the DeFuniak Business college for sale. Who wants it? Don't talk speak at once. Mr. J. B. and Alex. Denard of Campbellton, two prosperous farmers of that section were here Thursday. Did you see Nix Daniel driving a mule with load of melons Thursday? He knows how—carried 'em home. Mr. Frank Kates, the extensive wool grower of Bonifay was here a few days ago with a large quantity of wool. Quite a crowd of our people will leave in a few days for a ten days outing at St. Andrews Bay; will give names later. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy always affords prompt relief. For sale by R. B. Bellamy and J. R. Farrior. Mr. J. D. Forrester, the "Singer Man" made a business trip to Holmes county and Alabama this week. Ask him about the J. P. Tom White says if you don't believe his crop is suffering for rain, just go up the creek and look at those logs, they have got the rust. Mr. E. N. Dekle was missing Thursday morning, and everyone wanted to know: where is Neal?—he left for Campbellton before daylight. Mr. Haywood of Danville, Ind., arrived Thursday to visit his daughter here. We hope he will spend a pleasant summer with our people. Mr. R. C. Horne, our popular hardware man promises to give you a list of prices through the columns of the BANNER in a few days; look for them. Mr. Jones, of Calumet, North Michigan, brother of Mrs. Stephens, arrived Thursday morning to take charge of the effects of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stephens deceased. No Cure—No Pay. That is the way all druggists sell Groves Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c. Vernon Notes. Tax sale. Commissioner's court and meeting of School Board, brought quite a crowd here Monday. The full new board Commissioners work well, no jar or jargon; everything smoothness. Several orders passed, for building, repairing bridges, etc. The town is improving rapidly,—new buildings, painting, whitewashing, etc. Mr. Lo-sitter's new building is nearing completion. It is a handsome house, and contains 12 rooms. It will be a credit to the town. Dr. Coleman is building a new office. Messrs. Mobley, Howell and Parish Bros. all carry good stocks of general merchandise. T. J. Patrick, the popular druggist, and Dr. Brock, carry good line of drugs and patent medicines. Everyone seems to be doing a lively business. The school under the control of Professor Pratt is one of which our town should be proud. He has about 60 pupils, with new additions every week. He will have to employ an assistant. Pupils and patrons all like him. Quite a crowd was here Tuesday to witness the trial of May, and others, who were alleged to have committed the assault on Mrs. Cooley and family. The case was called at 11:30, and parties sworn. In the afternoon the case was taken up, evidence taken and argument made. The two female defendants were discharged, and the three male defendants held in bond of $500 each, with a peace clause attached. St. Andrews and Chipley were both represented here Monday. The people are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the new steamer, which will start for this place as soon as the boiler can be placed in position. One thing that speaks well for the county is the fact, that with a poor house farm and new and commodious buildings, there is only two lunatics; no poverty here now. Doctors Coleman and Dawkins amputated the negro's leg Tuesday, that was shot some time ago by Sheriff Allen, while resisting arrest. He is getting along nicely since the operation. One thing we notice: We think the windows of the court house should be closed occasionally, so as to keep out rain, thereby protecting the furniture, etc.

E. N. DEKLE, CHIPLEY, FLORIDA. W. C. T. U.

We are gratified to notice the growing sentiment in favor of ridding our town and county of the highest-spot which now curses it; but sentiment will not remove it, and if it is not removed it will spread like a cancer and become harder to manage. We hope our men will have the common-sense and courage to stand by their sentiment on election day. Will they do it or will they again bow their heads at the first crack of the party whip, and put men in office that they know will favor the rum element and give them license, legally or otherwise, usually otherwise. Some of our good men are opposed to the weaker sex putting themselves forward to protect their homes and loved ones, then let them show their manliness by throwing their political arms around them, instead of the sale of us; unless they do we will be obliged to rise in our womanhood, and wifehood, and motherhood, and sisterhood, and we will do it, that is necessary to protect ourselves and them. Some may feel a hesitancy in doing away with a business which furnishes boarders for the nice new house at Vernon, they may consider it a reflection on their business judgment to have said house stand empty, but we have heard of jails and poor houses being rented for manufacturing purposes, and we would suggest that as the quickest way of raising the debt on said house. Let the business men listen to the Judge of one of the Chicago courts. He says: "Not only are the saloons of Chicago responsible for the cost of the police force, the fifteen justice courts, but also the criminal courts, the county jail, a great portion of Joliet State prison, the long murder trials, the coroner's office, the morgue, the poor house, the reform schools, the mad house. If all the boys in the reform schools, the Pontiac 55 cent, the children of drunks, it is estimated that there are 10,000 destitute boys in Chicago not confined at all. Go where you will and you will find that whiskey is invariably the root of the evil. I know where I speak. 'This saloon,' 'that saloon, the other saloon, saloons, saloons, saloons—figure constantly in the anarchist trials. Conspirators met in a saloon; dynamite was discussed in a saloon; bombs were distributed over saloons; time and again witnesses say: 'we met at such and such a saloon.' Nine-tenths of the law-breaking of America is hatched in saloons, and the admitted fact is palliated by the axiom that saloons are headquarters for town city and even national gerrymandering. The liquor traffic is the scaffold on which half a hundred, beautiful, vital American citizens are assassinated, on which scores of horrid plagues are glorified." Mrs. R. A. Foster, Press Reporter.

A Remarkable Cure of Chronic Diarrhoea. In 1893, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 16th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a fifty cent bottle; and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me. Yours gratefully, HENRY STEEL BREGER, Allentown, Pa. Sold by R. B. Bellamy and J. R. Farrior.

Mr. J. K. P. Johnson who has accepted a position on the P. & A. as flagman or brakeman, is visiting his family this week.

The Florida Citizen is now one of the most complete newspapers in the United States, outside the great metropolitan centers. Its type are set entirely by machinery, and its printing is done by one of the large presses. Steam and electric power both are used, and telegraph wires are carried directly into the office. The best of material is employed in every department, and most of the members of the force are old and experienced journalists. The news of the world is obtained from the Associated Press and that of the State from Representative stations in every important town. The greatest care is taken to obtain correct reports and to avoid false and sensational rumors. Particulars for house hold reading are excluded. In politics the paper is soundly Democratic, following the principles laid down by Andrew Jackson, and refusing to lend itself to temporary crazes and schemes for private advantage. The Daily Citizen claims to have a larger circulation than any other daily south of Atlanta and east of New Orleans. The subscription price of the Weekly Citizen is $1 a year and that of the Daily Citizen $5. We will supply the Banner and Weekly Citizen together for $1.40, or the Banner and Daily Citizen for $8.
